

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest, which includes fair and
balanced coverage of the upcoming election.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
